Corporate Membership Program

Support historical preservation in the community where you live and work.

The Museum of North Idaho's Corporate Membership Program provides businesses and their employees with a range of exciting opportunities and benefits.

Revenue from corporate memberships provides critical support for the Museum's operations and introduces new worlds of history and culture to thousands of adults, school children, and families.

Your investment not only promotes your company but also aligns your brand with the Museum of North Idaho, a 55-year-old institution that directly impacts the community you serve through exhibitions, education, outreach, and programming.
